Hardest Fight In Weeks Is Viewed By Stevenson

Heroic Colonel Leads Defense, Is Saved By Bravery Of Negro

SEOUL (AP)—American infantrymen today virtually wiped out a force of more than 350 Chinese Reds attacking U. S. 2nd Division positions on the Korean Western Front.

An Eighth Army briefing officer said 315 Communists were estimated killed or wounded in the bloody close-quarter battle which raged 7½ hours inside the Allied trench network on Little Gibraltar Hill.

Adlai Stevenson, U. S. 1952 Democratic presidential nominee, watched part of the fighting from an observation bunker on a nearby hill. Two Chinese artillery shells exploded on the hill — some 550 yards from the bunker—but the former Illinois governor was not even shaken.

Tried To Dent Line

The Chinese attempt to dent the Allied line in the area—about nine miles west of Yonchon—resulted in the heaviest ground fighting in several weeks.

"It was a knockdown, drag-out fight for hours," commented a division spokesman.

Two reinforced Chinese companies began the assault at 2 a. m. under cover of a 3,000-round artillery and mortar barrage. The Reds scrambled up Little Gibraltar's slopes and clawed through Allied barbed wire to get into the trenches.

American machine guns mowed down scores on the slope and in the barbed wire. Those who reached the crest were killed, wounded or beaten back by Americans battling with sidearms, grenades, automatic weapons, bayonets and—in some cases—rifle butts.

Stopped By Artillery

The spokesman said two more Chinese companies trying to back up the assault were held at bay by a curtain of Allied artillery fire.

The briefing officer said an American battalion commander, a lieutenant colonel, led a platoon into the thick of the fight and was wounded but was saved by a Negro who stood over him in a trench.

The battalion commander, describing the action at a first aid station, said the Negro killed Chinese "left and right" with his rifle. He added that "he was the bravest man I ever saw."

The officer was given the Silver Star last today by Maj. Gen. James F. Fry, 2nd Division commander. His name cannot be disclosed until relatives are notified of his wounds.

Division officers were trying to learn the name of the Negro soldier. It was not known whether he survived.

American casualties were not disclosed. However, the briefing officer said several soldiers were wounded by a Chinese who came forward with his hands up, in a

Retracts Order To Tear Down Redinger Bldg.

Fire Chief Clarence W. Wright retracted his tear-down order on the Redinger Building, located at 296 E. State St., this morning after receiving informal notice from the State Fire Marshal's office to issue the building permit covering repairs to the structure.

The building houses the Neon Restaurant.

Chief Wright said, "A building permit has been released covering only that part of the structure in which the Neon Restaurant is located in compliance with the State Factory Building Code." A rear section of the building still must be razed, he said.

The several months-long dispute between Miss Helen Redinger, owner of the building, and Chief Wright was aired before council at its last meeting when Miss Redinger declared that state authorities had given her permission to repair the structure but that the chief had blocked the move. Chief Wright agreed to hold a conference on the matter with Miss Redinger later.

An agreement was reached March 7, when Miss Redinger, her architect and attorney met with the state fire marshal and Chief Wright to discuss the proposed repair of the building.

Truckers To Tell Tax Bill Views

Herriot To Protest Weight-Distance Levy

COLUMBUS, O. (AP)—Big truck operators bring their fight to escape a weight-distance tax into the open today in the Legislature.

The Ohio Trucking Association lined up a slate of witnesses for a hearing by the House Public Affairs Committee on an administration bill to get an extra 25 million dollars a year from the big rigs.

The levy, with another 23 millions from a cent-a-gallon boost in gasoline taxes, comprises Gov. Frank J. Lausche's pay-as-you-go program to get new roads for Ohio.

Truckers have been battling any tax based on the weight of trucks and the distance they travel since the governor proposed it several years ago.

Scheduled to blast at the proposal are association President Kenneth C. Herriot of East Palestine; executive director Perry T. Ford, former highway director; C. Emory Glander of Columbus, former tax commissioner, and Herschel C. Atkinson Jr., Columbus. John Marsh of Youngstown, representing the Ohio Petroleum Industry also expects to testify.

TV Audience Given Closeup Of Atomic Blast

Reception Wobbly During Explosion; Lights Blown Out

NEW YORK (AP)—Television viewers across the nation were given a closeup view of an atomic blast today as a grim reminder of the need for civil defense.

The pooled telecast of the blast itself, over the ABC, CBS and BCN networks, was one phase of a three-part educational demonstration by the Atomic Energy Commission and civil defense authorities.

The first was a view Sunday of the blast site on Yucca Flat, Nev. The final phases will be at 4:30 p. m., EST, today when TV cameras back to the site to show the damage. Telecasts of the explosion were from seven miles away.

Reception was wobbly at the moment of the blast but immediately afterward the now-familiar cloud rose high into the air like a giant mushroom, then leaned sharply as the wind apparently pushed it to one side. Even the eye of TV wasn't able to look directly at the blast, the camera lens having to be protected at the moment of the explosion.

A dramatic feature was the lights that went out. Before the explosion, viewers could see lights on the tower, on the house one-quarter mile away, and on the house one and a half miles away. Afterward, only the light on the farthest house was still glowing.

In Los Angeles, Boston, Chicago, New York and other points, there afterward, but the image then steadied to give a good picture of the mushrooming cloud.

However, reception varied somewhat by individual sets because of the rather weak synchronizing signals that hold the picture steady. On sets that were not in good adjustment, there was more trouble on the picture than on those in peak working order.

2 Lisbon Men Confess To 6 Burglaries

LISBON — Two local men, arrested Sunday morning after one was discovered breaking into a tavern, have confessed to six recent burglaries here, police said.

Earl Joseph of N. Market St. and Lawrence Manns of E. Washington St. admitted robbing Carl's Tavern twice, Crooks Restaurant, Pondi's Tavern, and the Farmers Exchange twice after questioning by village officials and Sheriff Howard J. Clark yesterday.

Joseph was bound over to the grand jury after pleading not guilty at a hearing Monday afternoon before Mayor Wilbur Warren to a charge of breaking and entering. He was released on $2,000 bond. Manns is scheduled to receive a hearing on a similar charge this afternoon.

The pair was arrested Sunday morning after Patrolman John Holshue found Joseph in Carl's Tavern on S. Market St. The intruder fled and a chase followed, in which the officer fired several shots at the fleeing man. He was apprehended later at his home.

Manns was taken into custody near the tavern.

Police said over $300 in dimes taken from pinball machines at the various places, and a rifle stolen from the Farmers Exchange were recovered.

U. N. Sidesteps Discussion Of Firing Of Reds

Squabble Over New Secretary General Cancels Meeting

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (AP)—

The hot squabble over choice of a new secretary general for the United Nations forced delegates today to sidestep discussion of the present head man's policies toward U. N. employees accused of disloyalty or subversion toward the United States.

Some delegates felt that the personnel policy question should be pigeonholed until Russia and the United States agree—if they can—on a successor to Trygve Lie.

Full Meeting Cancelled

General Assembly President Lester B. Pearson of Canada, a major contender for Lie's job, cancelled a full meeting of the 60-nation organization scheduled for this morning to discuss the personnel question. A number of delegations asked for the delay.

Lie has permitted the FBI to fingerprint Americans employed by the U. N. Secretariat. He has also fired a number of U. S. nationals in the Secretariat who refused to answer questions on alleged Communist affiliations before congressional investigators. These actions brought Soviet charges that the secretary general knuckled under to U. S. pressure.

Question Up Thursday

The question of Lie's replacement comes up again Thursday in the 11-nation Security Council. The Russians last Friday vetoed Pearson's nine-vote majority, which was led by Britain and France. The U. S. candidate, Carlos P. Romulo of The Philippines, got only five votes and the Soviet candidate, Stanislaw Skrzyszewski, got only the lone Soviet vote.

Firing Of Mayor Who Blinded Man Urged

CLEVELAND (AP)—Some citizens of suburban Bedford Heights talked today about demanding the removal of the village's mayor because he shot a tear gas shell into auto parts dealer's face.

The victim of Mayor Robert E. Willeford's point blank shot, Saul Goldstone, 35, reported he is now able to see "a little" with his left eye, but not the right. The shot blinded him for more than a day.

The mayor fired the pellet Sunday morning, as he and a policeman were arguing with Goldstone after flagging him down for speeding. Willeford said he didn't mean to hit Goldstone, but intended to fill his car with gas and force him to get out.

Monday night, some 100 Bedford Heights residents went to village hall, most of them angrily demanding action from councilmen. The councilmen explained it was not their regular meeting night and no move could be taken.

Explosion Light Seen 75 Miles From Test Site

Gls, Newsmen Only 2 Miles From Blast; Houses, Cars Tested

ATOM BOMB SITE, Nev. (AP)—Dawn came in with an atomic rumble today for 1,000 troops and hundreds of other observers on Yucca Flat—the soldiers and some newsmen closer than any human has been since Hiroshima and Nagasaki.

Two combat battalion teams and 20 reporters only two miles from the 300-foot tower where the blast flared at 8:20 a. m., EST, came through unscathed.

The low, fiery blast sucked dust from the desert floor into a whirling, purplish-red fireball, but little heat was felt by observers on News Nob, seven miles away.

The shock of the blast was sharp and bounced over the mountains ringing the test site to crack down as far away as Pasadena, Calif., Cedar City, Utah, and points in between, it was announced here.

In Las Vegas, nearest sizeable city to the site, 75 miles away, it flared a brilliant white, over nearly half the horizon, then turned yellow before finally fading away into pink. But it caused no excitement, and only a few residents reported feeling the sound wave.

The test was designed primarily to gauge how houses and cars would come through a real blast. The federal Civil Defense Administration built two two-story homes on the proving ground and scattered nearly 70 cars among the Joshua trees.

The closer of two civil defense houses being tested was believed to be smashed, but a light appeared to be burning in the vicinity of the more distant house, 7,500 feet from the tower. The two $20,000, two-story homes were erected to help architect's design houses with maximum protection.

After the first flash, the characteristic white cottony cloud formed quickly. As it rose to perhaps 13,000 feet an ice cap appeared atop the big ball.

The peculiar detonation set up a drumlike cacophony that ricocheted around the vast perimeter of the test ground. Within 19 minutes, wind swept the cloud southeastward, with its dirty gray highlighted by the first early rose gleams of the rising sun.

By that time the top was reported at 40,000 feet.

At first, the low purplish burst sucked up dust and dirt from the desert floor into an angry, brown mushroom. Dust swept eastward along the desert floor finally obscured both test houses. The tower from which the device was set off was believed vaporized.

Of the dozen atomic explosions viewed by this observer, this was one of the smallest. The fireball's brilliance was less and it appeared smaller than most. The AEC announced before hand it would have an energy output equal to 15,000 tons of TNT.

As the dust on the proving ground cleared, trucks carrying the troops from their forward positions could be seen moving slowly towards their maneuver objective many minutes after the blast.

George B. Owen, of Phoenix, Arizona's civil defense director, said in his opinion today's blast "proves that wind currents would have a definite effect on rescue problems."

He said the cloud did not lift sufficiently for rescue work to be done immediately and was too widespread for effective work in case of atomic disaster. Owen was present at last year's drop from a plane, detonated at 3,500 feet.

A half-hour after the blast, the atomic cloud began to mingle with nature's clouds, all lighted by the early morning sun. With its gray tail, the cloud stretched half the length of the 16-mile long flat.

While the burst did little to warm the spectators on News Nob, including civil defense leaders from various parts of the country, it certainly thrilled the vast majority. "Awesome," "fascinating and intriguing" and "a challenge for all humanity" were some of the reactions.

Ike Studies Abolishing RFC

Move May Cut Billion From National Deficit

WASHINGTON (P) — The Eisenhower administration was reported today planning to abolish the RFC with the hope that its assets will provide a billion dollars toward cutting the national deficit.

Administration officials apparently are weighing these alternatives: (1) acting by presidential reorganization order, or (2) getting behind a bill by Sen. Byrd (D-Va.) to kill off the agency and transfer some of its functions to other departments.

Either move would be in line with President Eisenhower's announced intention to take the government out of competition with private business as far as possible. Byrd would not comment directly, but he was reported to have been assured by Secretary of the Treasury Humphrey and other administration officials that action on the RFC will be forthcoming soon.

Byrd told an interviewer he hopes the administration looks beyond the RFC toward abolition of some other agencies to which past Congresses have given borrowing and lending authority aggregating about 20 billion dollars.

"That is a very fertile field in which to get considerable funds to apply to the deficit," he observed.

Liquidation of the RFC apparently would involve the sale of a large share of the $1,168,000,000 in assets estimated to be in its possession in the fiscal year beginning next July 1.

Under the government's book-keeping system, any funds realized would go to the Treasury as revenues and would help toward balancing the budget. Former President Truman estimated the deficit in the next fiscal year at nearly 10 billion dollars.

Included in RFC assets is a net of $679,639,000 in loans and investments, after estimated losses, and $47,744,000 in other assets. In its war-supporting program, the RFC reported $439,606,000 production facilities and liquidation of foreclosures, plus $1,075,000 in its small defense plants administration.

Administration leaders were said to be determined to salvage out of the RFC some agency which would continue long-term loans for small businesses, like those the Small Defense Plants Administration is now making.

WASHINGTON (P) — Rep. Gross (R-Ia.) said today perhaps 800 persons will die in railroad crossing accidents this year because of inability to see moving trains at night.

Gross is author of a bill which would require that unlighted railroad cars, both passenger and freight, be marked with reflective or luminous material which would reflect light from auto headlights.

Senators Urge Tougher Policy

3 Disagree On Result Of Branding Russia

WASHINGTON (P) — Sen. Cooper of Kentucky said today the sort of get-tough policy toward Russia urged by two of his fellow Republicans would sound the "death knell" to any hopes of peaceful settlement.

Sen. Knowland (R-Calif.) told the Senate yesterday the United States should immediately seek to persuade the United Nations to brand Russia as an aggressor in Korea.

Knowland advocated the action as part of a program to bring an immediate cold war showdown with the Communists. A second point would be a request from this country that all U. N. members withdraw recognition of Red China. A third was a complete blockade of Red China.

Sen. Ferguson (R-Mich.), appearing on an MBS radio interview last night, said the U. N. should take a firm stand toward what he termed "treason by Russia to the United Nations."

Ferguson said he disagreed with Cooper's contention that a get-tough policy might touch off a new world war, and he added: "I can't see that we can cause Russia to take any step she doesn't want to take when she wants to take it."

Knowland is chairman of the Republican Policy Committee, but he emphasized yesterday he was voicing only his own convictions.

He took the floor the day after Georgi Malenkov, the new Soviet Premier, had said peaceful settlement of the issues between this country and Russia was possible. Knowland's comment: "Deeds rather than words would be more impressive."

Ferguson, saying he took "a very dim view" of Malenkov's speech, declared:

"Communism is really a religion of promises. They operate by promises. When they get in a tight spot, they draw back; and then they come out again. I think we are generally agreed in this country that you can't believe gangsters who are in a conspiracy."

Knowland's thesis was promptly challenged on the senate floor by Cooper, who has served as a U. S. delegate to U. N. General Assemblies.

The Kentucky senator expanded his views today in an interview. His ideas paralleled those expressed by Sen. Sparkman (D-Ala.) in a separate interview.

Sparkman, who also has been a delegate to the U. N., said it was impossible now to tell whether Malenkov's speech really had any substance. But he said of Knowland's plan to brand Russia an aggressor: "It might be well to wait and see before doing anything to push this right now."

To Lay Before Ike Rounded Military Plan

WASHINGTON (P) — Sen. Cooper (R-Ky.) called on President Eisenhower today to lay before Congress a fully rounded program for U. S. military security even if necessary outlays delay budget balancing.

And Sen. Lyndon B. Johnson of Texas, the Democratic leader, said Congress will support such a presidential military decision despite the feelings of members who "would trim our defense program to what they consider the needs of our budget rather than trimming our budget to the needs of the defense program."

Cooper said in an interview he fears Johnson was right in telling the Senate yesterday that this country is unprepared for a total war into which it might be thrust "in a matter of hours."

The Kentucky senator said he will urge the Senate Armed Services Committee, of which he is a member, to broaden its scheduled investigation of the ammunition situation into a full-scale inquiry into supplies of planes, guns, ships and other equipment.

He said this could give Congress a clearer idea of what is needed to meet any possible Russian attack, but he added that the lawmakers must depend on the President's final decision.

"I think the country would accept the President's decision on military needs and I hope he sends us a message outlining a fully rounded program," Cooper said.

"If the funds needed are so large that we can't balance the budget, then security must come first."

Eisenhower has made it clear he wants a balanced budget in the year beginning July 1 and Sen. Taft of Ohio, the Republican leader, has predicted military outlays will be cut to attain that goal.

Jury Disputed In Trial Of Sheriff-Killer

WEST UNION, O. (P) — Testimony may begin today in the first degree murder trial of Charles Eklieberry Jr., admitted slayer of Sheriff Ben K. Perry of Adams County.

Ten jurors were seated tentatively Monday, first day of the trial. But defense attorneys indicated they would protest seating of at least five of them.

Common Pleas Judge James W. Lang Jr., said attorneys probably would agree on a jury today, and that it may visit the roadside spot where Perry was killed Jan. 12.

Eklieberry, 25-year-old farmer's son from Antioch, said he is anxious "to get things started, then over with as soon as possible."

The trial was the No. 1 item of conversation in this South-western Ohio town of less than 2,000 persons but townspeople said the tension wasn't the same as when it first learned that Eklieberry and William Vandale, 26, of Marietta, had admitted their part in the shooting of the sheriff, a former national president of the Fraternal Order of Police.

Rete Grooms, chief of police here for six years and a close friend of the late sheriff, said, "everyone is waiting to see what the law will do with them. Before this, about our only trouble was with night drivers and a few drunks."

Many are predicting the outcome of the trial. One court official, who refused to be identified, said "Adams County never did send a man to the electric chair and won't this time."

Who should come walkin' through and him whistlin' "Did Your Mother Come From Ireland?" but Henry Nicholson, the handsome Secret Service agent and the pride of all Boston.

"Top of the morning to you!" says he, and the two Irishmen brightened like the sun burstin' through the clouds over Killarney.

And who should be breezin' past next but the President's own lawyer, and him named Bernard Shanley and a Knight of Malta to boot!

And before you could say Dwight Eisenhower, didn't the White House press secretary be callin' the lads and the lassies in—and him named Jim Hagerty?

He had a bit of news. The Irish ambassador was callin' on the President today. And for why? But to bring him a bit of shamrock, of course. And wasn't Jim's secretary beamin' in the background, like the moon over Lough Erne—and her name Mary Cleary, if you please?

Then a misguided slip of a girl reporter lights up and the saints forgive her:

"But Mr. Hagerty, wasn't I readin' in the paper that some professors have said there is no such thing as a shamrock?"

Now Hagerty is the most peaceable of men, but if looks would kill we'd be buryin' that poor girl on Thursday.

"There are too," said Hagerty in tones you could hear the length and width of Galway Bay, "such things as shamrocks."

Back in the pressroom: "Well, now," said the first Irishman, "things might be worse. Things might be much worse. In fact—"

"You took the words straight out of my mouth," said the second Irishman, reaching for his hat. "And to whom shall we drink the first St. Patrick's Day toast? To President Melke or to President O'Eisenhower?"

Patrol Stresses Good Road Manners

Cpl. Edward Mallery, officer in charge at the Salem State Highway Patrol barracks, today urged drivers to observe "good motor manners" in their every day driving habits.

Many highway accidents, he said, aren't caused by violations of traffic laws but are the result of poor highway manners on the part of motorists.

"That's why the Motor Manners program, being sponsored this month by the State Highway Patrol and the National Safety Council, is so important to traffic safety," he said.

Examples of poor motor manners, he said, are failure to signal one's intention of turning or stopping, crowding pedestrians at cross walks, or refusing to come to a complete stop at a stop signal.

"Motorists who are discourteous, even though they may not intend to break the law, may be just as responsible for traffic accidents as the deliberate law violators," Cpl. Mallery said.

Cpl. Mallery concluded by offering a good rule for motorists to remember: "Drive as you would have the other fellow drive!"

Vote Scheduled On 2 Key Bills

Car Inspection, Road Money Under Study

COLUMBUS, O. (P)—The Ohio Legislature scheduled votes today on two important bills—proposed laws to require at least annual auto inspections and to give the highway department an emergency 15 million dollar financial lift.

The auto inspection proposal, sponsored by Rep. Samuel L. Devine (R-Franklin), will come to a vote in the House. It is similar to an act Gov. Frank J. Lausche vetoed two years ago, a veto the Legislature failed to override. The House is expected to approve it today and send it to the Senate.

The Senate will vote on the bill sponsored by Sen. David McK. Ferguson (R-Guernsey) to give the highway department 15 millions to get an early start on key highway projects. At least half the money must be spent in counties with more than 250,000 population. The rest, if the Legislature approves the grant, probably will be spent on access roads to the Pike County atomic energy project and the Northern Ohio Turnpike.

The Legislature in Monday's brief sessions, which started the 11th legislative week, received 24 new bills. The total proposed new laws now numbers 59 and the bill introduction deadline in the House still is two weeks away. The Senate observes no deadline. The Legislature two years ago received 1,039 bills and passed approximately one-fourth of them.

No End To Strike At Jet Engine Plant Seen

CINCINNATI (P)—The General Electric Co. said today an end to the strike at its jet engine plant in suburban Evandale "is not now in sight."

The strike, affecting more than 12,000 workers at the plant started at midnight Friday among 1,100 AFL machinists. Monday midnight it spread to 4,500 CIO United Automobile Workers.

Their work stoppage and the establishment of picket lines at the plant has halted production at the huge factory which turns out a big share of the jet engines used in military aircraft.

Both strikes are the result of wage disputes.

There were unofficial estimates that the strike is causing the loss of $10,000 a day in wages.

Dulles Plans Visit To Eastern Nations

WASHINGTON (P)—Secretary of State Dulles plans to leave around May 10 on a flying visit to 10 key Middle Eastern and Southeast Asia countries.

Informed officials who disclosed arrangements for the trip today said Dulles' visit would be the first ever undertaken to the Middle East by an American secretary of state.

The secretary's main aim, they said, is to strengthen American relations with the Arab world and speed the building of a Middle East defense alliance against communism.

Dulles plans to travel by special plane during the two-week tour, stopping in Egypt, Iraq, Syria, Lebanon, Saudi Arabia, Hashemite Jordan, Libya, Israel, India and Pakistan.

"I don't know what comes over me—I just can't stay away from automobiles. It's not that I want to do it—I just do."

This was the dialogue yesterday as Leibowitz sentenced Maher to an indeterminate term in the State Reformatory at Lincolnville, N. Y. The boy admitted stealing more than 400 automobiles in two years—just to go joy riding.

FBI Report Shows Increase In U. S. Crime

WASHINGTON (P)—FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover reported today more than two million major crimes were committed in the United States in 1952. It was the first time such a total has been reached since accurate statistics have been kept, he said.

Reports submitted to the Bureau by law enforcement agencies throughout the country put the total at 2,036,510. This is 154,350 above the 1951 figure.

Citizenship Refused To Restaurant Owner

LOS ANGELES (P)—The citizenship petition of Nick Gianacis, former restaurant man on whose testimony actress Madge Meredith was sentenced to two years in prison, has been rejected by the Federal Court.

Dismissal of the petition was requested by the U. S. immigration service on the ground that Gianacis, a Greek, had not established proof of good moral character. Gianacis was not in court.

Miss Meredith, who was convicted in 1947 of the beating and kidnapping of Gianacis, was released from prison when Gov. Earl Warren commuted her sentence after many prominent Hollywood personalities came to her defense.

U. S. Judge William M. Byrne ordered yesterday that the findings of immigration officers, including a charge that there was "shocking evidence of false testimony" in Gianacis' evidence against Miss Meredith, be made part of the record.

Noises By Malenkov

There is only one peace gesture the Kremlin could make which would justify burning one electric light five seconds late in the hite House. It could pull the string on the Korean war. It could tell Mao to call off his troops and prove it meant business by calling off its own assistance to that newest of the blood-letters.

Korea then would become powerful evidence of a change of heart in the Kremlin since the death of Stalin. It would prove something had happened besides a substitution of a man named Malenkov for a man named Stalin.

In the absence of proof, any noises by a man named Malenkov must be interpreted the same as all noises by his predecessor. The western world has grown tired of trying to read optimistic meanings into Stalin's belches.

Any Word From Oregon?

There was nothing to do in the U. S. Senate last Friday, and the Congressional Record for the day shows how the vacuum was maintained. Wayne Morse, the junior senator from Oregon, made a report for the Independent party.

He is the only living member of this fictional organization, which sprang into imaginative being in the 1952 presidential campaign after Morse deserted the Republican party and took the stump for Adlai Stevenson, the ADA-Democratic candidate. The Democrats didn't want him, so he had no choice but to pretend he was starting a new party. But this isn't the gist of what he talked about last Friday.

He was complaining that the Senate is abusing the people of Oregon by not carrying him on a legislative chip. He was charging that its attempts to impress him with the bitter futility of being the only living member of a non-existent party are an insult to his state.

This we doubt. In the absence of direct word from Oregon, it must be assumed that Wayne Morse is not only a man without a party but a man without a state.

Tito, Stay Away From Our Door

Britons, with more experience in such matters, probably can entertain Yugoslavia Marshal Tito without twitching a political whisker.

It would be different here in the United States. The rights and wrongs of politics are believed to be absolute, not relative, in this younger country.

Marshal Tito is a Communist. That makes him an absolute evil.

In the United States, there are not good Communists, only bad ones.

The United States is unalterably opposed to Communists and to the Communist conspiracy. There is no possibility of reconciliation any more.

Two previous efforts to condone the Communists were disastrous. Early in his first term, Franklin D. Roosevelt granted diplomatic recognition to the Soviet Union, with the proviso that it would promote no further revolutionary activity in this country. The proviso never was honored by Russia.

In his third term, Mr. Roosevelt entered a war alliance with the Soviet Union, also with provisos. Some of these were never honored. That did it. Henceforth, Communism was an absolute evil.

Then came Tito, a Communist who turned against Russian domination of the Communist conspiracy. Tito qualified for U. S. assistance But he continues to be a Communist.

The British, with more experience in handling evils, are willing to make a four-alarm fuss over Marshal Tito. Americans, neophytes in the art of juggling relative evil, are shocked. All we have to give Tito is our money.

Who Follows Trygve Lie?

No man on earth knows so much about international politics as Trygve Lie, who soon must be replaced as secretary general of the United Nations.

This is being done at Lie's request. He resigned last November but has stayed on the job until a successor could be found.

This might be the means of destroying the United Nations as far as its original structure is concerned. The possibility lies in the fact there can be no successor to Secretary General Lie without the consent of the Soviet Union. Yet, he resigned because the Soviet Union had refused to recognize his authority. This was done because Lie had shown by his official conduct that he approved of U.N. intervention in Korea and aid for Europe.

Thus, it was signified to the world that the Soviet Union was prepared to make an issue of the secretary general's independence of decision and it was for that reason that Lie resigned.

His resignation brings a vital issue to a climax. His successor must be nominated by the Security Council, that includes Russia. If Russia refuses to agree on a successor, there will be no choice but to reorganize the United Nations, with the Soviet Union excluded.

Spiritual Diary for Lent

They that wait upon the Lord shall renew their strength; they shall mount up with wings as eagles; they shall run, and not be weary; and they shall walk, and not faint.—Isaiah 40:31.

To face the world with courage and certain hope, accepting joy with gladness and pain without complaint—to be charitable in judgment, broad in understanding—to think little of self and much of others—to see life as a daring adventure in which the soul must never yield defeat—and finally to approach the end with firm step, uplifted glance, and face turned toward the stars—surely this is victorious living.

—Alfred Grant Walton

Today's Message

The redeemed nature seeks the higher altitudes of the Spirit. The carnal nature seeks to low altitudes of the flesh. Modern mechanics have overcome the law of gravitation, so that men may fly aloft in defiance of the physical law that would pull them down. The gravitation of sin is in the flesh, but the indwelling Holy Spirit in the Christian lifts him into the higher altitudes with God, where he receives the renewed strength that issues in the ability to perform the tasks of life; to overcome the difficulties of life; and to conquer in the battles of life.

The secret of victorious Christian living is with them who, through waiting upon the Lord, rise to the higher spiritual altitudes with Him. The soul that dwells in these uplands, and breathes their invigorating atmosphere of faith and hope and love and peace and joy and assurance, will run without weariness and walk without fainting.

Challenge To GOP

Symington Cracks Barrier To Defense Probe

Perhaps the most important speech on the subject of the safety of the United States that has been made in a decade or more got scant attention here last week. It was delivered by Sen. Symington, formerly secretary of the Air Force under President Truman.

Mr. Symington pulled no punches. What he said was a more severe indictment of the Truman administration than any Republican ever made. Likewise, it was an indictment of the American press as well as members of Congress on both parties who have failed to ferret out the facts behind a blanket of secrecy that has hidden the truth about the "defense mess" as effectively as if there had been a dictatorship in power in Washington.

"Truth," said Mr. Symington, as he spoke before the Philadelphia Evening Bulletin's forum, "is essential to the workings of a government such as ours, one that is based upon the consent of the governed."

There are sentences in the Symington speech that should bring about the broadest kind of congressional investigation. Yet, 10 days ago when Sen. Taft, vaguely hinted that such a broad inquiry might possibly be desirable, he was immediately jumped upon by other members of Congress and by certain sections of the press because it was said some comfort might be given the enemy through the disclosure of "secret information"—the oldest of alibis to cover up incompetence and negligence.

But what Sen. Symington is talking about the enemy already knows. Only the American people are being deprived of the truth.

When the Missouri senator says "The face of the Soviet Union exploded the atomic bomb in September, 1949," he not only takes issue with Mr. Truman—who says the Soviet Union hasn't got the bomb—but, without mentioning the former President, Mr. Symington went on to say:

"Eight months later, in May 1950, our government announced that hopes for peace were better than at any time since World War I and that therefore even less money would be required for defense the following year. That was May. In June, the Communists struck in Korea."

It was Mr. Truman's own announcement about the prospects of peace and it was Mr. Truman's recommendation that less money be spent for defense.

Gen. Eisenhower was called in at the time to give window dressing to the budget, but all he could do was to examine the items—not to pass judgement on the over-all money limitation already fixed by President Truman and the Budget Bureau.

But there is even more significance in the other parts of the speech of Sen. Symington when he says:

"For a long time, both before and after the start of the Korean war, we followed the advice of those Pentagon people who glided explained to the National Security Council why America could not afford rearmament. . . .

"Certain fiscal leaders, who should have been talking about fiscal affairs, suddenly became military experts, and advanced the cause of one type of jet engine over another."

Who were these "Pentagon people" and who were these "fiscal experts?" The country has a right to know. And why, and upon whose advice, did President Truman refuse early in 1950 to allow the spending of $500,000,000 both houses of Congress had appropriated for additional air power? This correspondent was almost alone at that time in criticizing the President's action. Mr. Symington and the Air force had to remain silent.

As for the "fiscal experts," the American people don't know that the military men whose lives are spent in studying weapons and strategy were forced to take a backseat when Mr. Truman's director of the budget entered the picture and said in effect what weapons should be bought. This was true in the Roosevelt administration, too. Gen. MacArthur in the Philippines, before the Japanese attack in 1941, was clamoring for bomber and fighter planes, and so were Adm. Kimmel and Gen. Short before Pearl Harbor. But the Budget Bureau had never approved the sums needed for such a build-up. A thorough inquiry as to how the Budget Bureau substituted its judgment for that of military men in the last 20 years would be revealing, indeed.

"Certain scientists," continues Sen. Symington, "who should have stuck to science desired to enter politics, so they wrote vague, misleading books on military strategy and became so-called experts on the organization of the Department of Defense."

Did the senator have in mind Dr. Vannevar Bush, scientist, whose book discussing future strategy said piloted airplanes and naval carriers would soon be outmoded and who, also, made several speeches recently in criticism of the organizational setup of the Joint Chiefs of Staff and the Defense Department?

The Missouri senator asks a series of penetrating questions—among them: "Why don't we use the atomic bomb on military targets in North Korea?"

Lots of people have asked that same question, but only evasive answers are given by military commanders who say "That's a decision to be made at other levels." It seems military men don't fight the wars today or call the signals—that's the function of the diplomats.

Now comes Gen. Van Fleet to declare, as Mr. Symington phrases it, that "Every month during the 22 months he had been in Korea, there had been a serious shortage of ammunition which at times became critical."

Sen. Symington with characteristic candor and courage finally sums up the situation thus: "Rather than coming up with the truth to the people, we follow the tragic steps of certain World War I Allies by again attempting to purchase a nervous neutrality."

When will Congress authorize a real investigation of what has been going on in the Pentagon, of what has been going on in the Budget Bureau, and what has been going on in the State Department since 1945.

In all countries, except those behind the Iron Curtain, public opinion does express itself, often in the form of mass demonstrations. The weapon of psychological warfare therefore is cultivated and strengthened with the object of winning masses of the people to one side or the other.

The "Voice of America" is a device of psychological warfare.

ITS OBJECT is to win friends not among government officials but among the people in favor of the United States. Our hope is that most of the people will become antagonistic to Soviet Russia and the Communist party. It should further be designed to vitiate any tendency toward neutralism.

In the present investigation conducted by the McCarthy committee, no attack is being made against the theory of psychological warfare. However, certain phases of this process have been selected to indicate that in the "Voice of America" there has been an area of activity which has been used against the interests of the United States.

This does not mean that everything about the "Voice of America" is wrong or that such a device need be abandoned.

FOR INSTANCE, we might go back to the testimony of Virgil H. Fulling, chief of the Latin American News Service, who has been trying to do a thoroughly American job. He tells of a pro-American demonstration in Guatemala, which is now the Communist outpost on the American continents.

Fulling wanted to give that demonstration an enthusiastic display over the "Voice of America." He wrote a script in which he used the term "anti-Communist." Now, let us look at the colloquy on that subject:

Counsel Roy Cohn—" . . . Had anything been crossed out of the script? "Mr. Fulling—Yes, sir. Where the term 'anti-Communist' had been used, that was crossed out. . . . "Mr. Cohn—Now, by what words was the term 'anti-Communist' replaced in each instance? "Mr. Fulling—In the first instance, where it was called 'anti-Communist organizations,' the term was replaced by 'citizens.' "Mr. Cohn—The word 'anti-Communist' was deleted? "Mr. Fulling—And replaced by 'citizens.' "Mr. Cohn—How about in the second instance? "Mr. Fulling—In the second instance, the word 'anti-Communist' was replaced by the word "democratic."

What does the word, democracy, or democratic, mean in the United States, in New York or Mobile, in Guatemala or Prague? Everywhere it has a special meaning. The other day, I was talking to a man who insisted that "democratic" means "equalitarian"; that is, that all men are equal. Equal how — biologically, legally or in the sight of God

IN PSYCHOLOGICAL warfare, words are important only if understood by those at whom they are aimed. If misunderstood by them, if given an erroneous twist, the same words can be destructive. For instance, at most, the word "democratic" in the United States can mean government by the choice of the people at a free election; in a Communist country it means the dictatorship of the proletariat. When Communists use the term "democratic front," they mean an amalgam of political groups in which the Communists prevail. In the United States, if we had such a term, it would mean a political group dominated by Adlai Stevenson's party to which a large number, if not an actual majority, of the American people adhere. If we are to have a "Voice of America," it is necessary that the psychologists understand words and their application. This work should be regarded not as an international amusement program but as psychological warfare against an enemy.

Can't Agree on Red Cross

The News: I would like to reply to the Winona resident who recently defended the Red Cross.

Perhaps if the writer had served in the armed forces as did my husband for four years, he would have had first-hand knowledge of how the Red Cross operates.

Just before my husband left for overseas in May, 1952, the Red Cross passed out to each man a sandwich which consisted of a thin slice of cheese on dry bread and two cigarettes. A New York newspaper story on the same referred to delicious sandwiches and two packs of cigarettes.

When the mother of a close friend of my husband's was dying in Massachusetts, he applied to the Red Cross for money and tried to arrange to get home. The Red Cross waited two weeks to check up and then got a signed promise for repayment of the loan. Then when the boy arrived home his mother was dead.

The Salvation Army does a lot more for the armed forces for a lot less ballyhoo, and they don't ask for huge funds.

Recently my husband picked up a GI home from Korea and the discussion turned to the Red Cross and the drive for blood donations. He said the Red Cross charges the soldiers for the blood they are given to aid their recovery. Why? Don't the donors contribute blood free of charge?

Wake Up, He Says

The News: In regard to the solution of the parking problem on the streets of Salem, I would say it is a problem for the housewives and others who try to find a place to park while shopping. In fact, it is an intolerable situation.

What has amazed me is that some energetic contractor has not seen the solution by building a shopping center such as Boardman has and our parking worries would be over.

Go to Boardman any Friday evening and you will see a large percentage of Salem people there and then travel on to Alliance and you will see some more. If this ever happens, Salem will have plenty of parking space and it will be a silent city.

Better wake up city officials, before this happens and you are holding the bag. Yours for a bigger and better Salem.

One Man's Opinion

By WALTER KIERNAN

The explanation "he had trouble with his mother-in-law" has failed to revive the common man's flagging interest in Farouk's troubles.

A fellow who can get free of his wife just by saying "I divorce you" three times can't hope to hold page one forever with his domestic difficulties.

Farouk has now reached the news stature of the atom bomb. There's a new story occasionally but nothing comes of it.

Secret To Study Hospital Staffs

WASHINGTON — Rep. Secret (D-Ohio) wants to know how staffs in civilian hospitals compare in size and effectiveness with those in Veterans Administration hospitals.

To find out, he said today, he is sending questionnaires to eight hospitals in his congressional district.

Secret, a member of a House Veterans Subcommittee studying the VA hospital program, explained he wants to determine whether the VA is on firm ground in contending it has had to shut entire hospital wings because of a personnel lack.

He said he would compare the ratio of nurses and doctors to patients in these Ohio hospitals to the ratio in VA hospitals.

He termed these eight "well run" and said they comprise two general hospitals in Zanesville, one in Marietta; a state mental institution, a county hospital and two private institutions in Cambridge; and a tuberculosis sanatorium in McConnelsville.

Secret said other members of the subcommittee will follow a similar course in their own areas.

The Ohioan, a World War Two Navy veteran, said he also favors a personal inspection trip by the subcommittee to a few selected VA hospitals to question patients and staff alike.

Man Walks 10 Miles To Pay Tax On Time

SCRANTON, Pa. — A lone clerk in the local office of the Bureau of Internal Revenue looked wearily at the bedraggled figure who strode into the office at five minutes to midnight.

"Brother," the man said pleadingly, "I walked 10 miles, don't be sore at me."

Joseph Patchen of Moscow, about 10 miles from here, told the clerk he had heard a news commentator warn that midnight was the deadline for filing income tax returns.

Patchen said he put his checkbook in his pocket and started walking. He hoped for a lift but none materialized.

With the help of the clerk, it took Patchen just five minutes to get straightened out with Uncle Sam. He signed the form, wrote out a check and walked from the office at the stroke of midnight.

Miss Vivian Zimmerman Wed To Robert V. Wenderoth

Jerusalem Lutheran Church in Columbiana was the setting Sunday, March 8, for the marriage of Miss Vivian Zimmerman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Homer Zimmerman, to Robert V. Wenderoth, son of Mr. and Mrs. Dallas Shearer. Both families reside in Columbiana.

Rev. A. A. Andersen, church pastor, performed the double ring ceremony at 3:30 p. m. before a large assembly of relatives and friends.

White carnations, gladioli, ferns and lighted candles in candelabra made the background setting at the chancel where the couple exchanged their vows.

Miss Helen Simpson, organist and Paul Zimmerman of Leetonia, soloist and uncle of the bride, presented a half hour program of nuptial music preceding the ceremony. Mr. Zimmerman sang "Through the Years" and "Because." In duet with Miss Simpson, Mr. Zimmerman sang "I Love You Truly."

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a becoming gown of Chantilly lace over white satin with nylon tulle pleated at the front. Lace edged her finger veil of illusion which was held in place with a scalloped tiara. Her only jewelry was a single strand of pearls, a gift of the groom. She carried white carnations arranged around a white orchid.

Mrs. Paul Shirey of Greenford, sister of the bride, was matron of honor. In the wedding procession she preceded the bride to the altar in a ballerina gown of yellow nylon tulle styled with a lace bodice and matching jacket and headpiece. She carried a cascade bouquet of pink carnations.

Richard Wenderoth of Lisbon, brother of the groom, was best man. Ushers were Glen Eckert and John Barrow of Columbiana and Joe Eckert of Boardman.

Mrs. Zimmerman and Mrs. Shearer were attired in navy blue and each mother wore a red rose corsage.

A reception for 150 guests was held in the church dining room.

Mrs. John Brown cut the three-tiered wedding cake which was the center of attraction at the refreshment table. Spring flowers added to the table appointments. Mrs. Donald Hawkins and Miss Jane Zimmerman poured and Miss Joan Zimmerman presided at the guest book.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Wenderoth are graduates of Columbiana High School. The bride has been employed as cashier for the A & P Tea Co. Mr. Wenderoth is a draftsman in the engineering department of the National Rubber Machinery Co. in Columbiana.

AL Refuses Browns Permission To Transfer To Baltimore

Vote Comes As Big Surprise

Poll Is 5-2; Move Seen Too Sudden

By JACK HAND and JOE REICHLER

TAMPA, Fla. (P)—One of the surest things in the history of baseball boomeranged into one of the biggest surprises in the game since the turn of the century when Bill Veeck was refused permission to transfer the St. Louis Browns to Baltimore.

For almost a week, unofficial polls of the owners indicated that mere formalities were involved in the proposed switch. But when they met here yesterday, they sent Veeck back to St. Louis for at least one more year by astounding one and all with a 5-2 vote against the switch. Only the Cleveland Indians and the Chicago White Sox reportedly sided with Veeck.

As officials talked it over today, they were not so certain the Boston Braves would receive permission to transfer the National League franchise to Milwaukee. This move also had been thought to be all set except for the official voting in St. Petersburg tomorrow.

All the National League club owners must approve if the switch is to be made, and at least one—Walter O'Malley of the Brooklyn Dodgers—hinted he might not vote for the change.

Although he was not available, it was reported that Horace Stoneham of the New York Giants was against the move.

Another thing that might influence the action of the National League moguls was the attitude of Commissioner Ford Frick. He obviously was pleased that the Browns will be forced to remain in St. Louis.

"I'm in favor of transferring the franchise, but not at this late time," he said, referring to the Browns. "It would have been nonsensical to make the move so close to the start of the season. We would have been up to our necks in lawsuits."

Veeck, who said he lost $400,000 in St. Louis last year, was disappointed at the turn of events. "None of the other owners would be a bit unhappy if I sold out," he said.

He's on the spot now, and whether the St. Louis fans will support the Browns is a question. They know he is being forced to operate there, and that the team probably will move out before long, perhaps by next year.

But, he said, he has no intention of selling the club—at least not at the present.

"However, I may change my mind two days from now," he commented. "I've been known to change my mind on two days notice. I still think my intended move was a wise one. And I still think it's a wise move for Boston to shift to Milwaukee."

Although Veeck complained the other owners wanted to see him leave the baseball picture, President Will Harridge of the American League said several factors led to the turnaround. Among them he listed television commitments, schedules, ticket sales, possibility of law suits and the general uncertainty of leaving a city that has been in the league 50 years.

4 Area Dogs Win Kennel Club Awards

Four area dog owners placed winners in the 15th annual benefit-Mahoning-Shenango Kennel Club Show at the Youngstown Arena Sunday.

A total of 636 entries representing 63 breeds were judged for color, form, breed and showmanship before a crowd of 4,500 dog enthusiasts at the afternoon and evening showing.

Ch. Forest Nod of Mandeville, a miniature schnauzer, owned by Edward Jenner of W. netka Ill., was judged the "best in show" dog by judge Frank F. Davis of Ventour N.J.

Of the area dogs, three cockers, a collie, and an Irish setter won awards in their classes.

The collie, Thurmelt Taffeta, owned by Mrs. Melvin A. Tork of the Georgetown Rd., took the first American bred bitch award.

In the black cocker class, Col. Ishanaugh's Registerite and Col. shanaugh's Step Up, owned by Henry C. Hurburt of 750 Highland Ave., won first reserve bitch and male honors.

The parti color cocker award was taken by E. Lu's Hullahallo owned by Lucien Eugene of Canfield.

An Irish setter, Wakde's Royal Kopper, owned by Mr. and Mrs. Richard M. Holz of Canfield took first honors in the puppy class.

Five DeCrow Brothers Are Top Bowlers

A five man bowling team that would be hard to beat is the DeCrow brothers. At present, however, only three of the brothers bowl together. Lou, Bernard and Gus roll for the inspection department in the Mullins League, and their team is now in first place in the league.

Tony bowls for Sekely Tool & Die in the Industrial League and Herb bowls for the Truckers in Mullins League.

All five have hit 500 several times with Lou and Bernard topping the 500 mark regularly.

Lou, Bernard and Gus have bowled for about 20 years, nearly once a week, while Herb started the sport five years ago and Tony only three years ago.

The five picked up their skill entirely on their own, without any professional instruction. Several years ago Lou bowled 279, believed to be the highest single game total by any of the men.

Another brother, Michael, hasn't bowled in about two years, but has been thinking of returning to the game to join his high-scoring brothers.

Boston Group Seeks To Halt Transfer

BOSTON (P)—With the future of the Bos on Braves still anybody's guess, a group of Boston businessmen today flew South in the hope of getting owner Lou Perini to change his plans about shifting the Braves' franchise to Milwaukee.

As Wednesday's scheduled National League meeting in St. Petersburg, Fla., to discuss Perini's proposal drew near, leaders in government, business and just plain fans voiced hearty objections to the move.

The Chamber of Commerce delegation, led by President Paul T. Rothwell and past-president Harry J. Blake, will pledge official business aid to the Braves.

As an alternative, it was understood the group planned to urge Perini to sell the club to a Boston syndicate. No definite purchaser was mentioned but it was believed it was hoped to interest a prominent personage such as Joseph P. Kennedy, the financier and former U. S. ambassador to Great Britain, in heading up a buyers' group.

Backed by appeals of Gov. Christian A. Herter, the Massachusetts Legislature and Boston Mayor John B. Hynes, the Chamber of Commerce committee also hoped to influence the vote of National League owners at the St. Petersburg meeting.

Amid all this hopefulness there was the clear and definite stand taken by Perini, who told the chamber on the telephone Monday:

"I'll be glad to see you if you want to enjoy the Florida sunshine and watch the ball team a few days, but there's absolutely nothing you can say, nothing you can do to change the situation. It is an accomplished fact."

The last two frames were more evenly played, with St. Paul scoring 35 points and the Baptist eagles 33.

Groves paced St. Paul, scorching the nets for 20 points. Mordew was high for the Baptists with 22 points.

The latest win gave St. Paul a record of two straight victories in the playoff to make them undisputed champs in the league.

2 Seek To Better Lovellette Mark

KANSAS CITY (P)—Fast-breaking Indiana rules a seven-point favorite over Louisiana State University and skyscraper Washington is a three-point choice over defending champion Kansas tonight in the semi-finals of the NCAA basketball tournament.

The Hoosiers, top-ranked nationally in The Associated Press poll, and LSU's Southeastern Conference kings, No. 7, clash in the opening game at 8:45 p. m. EST.

The tipoff in the second game will come two hours later. Washington is No. 2 in the ratings and Kansas is No. 7.

Municipal Auditorium has sold out its 10,500 seats. A large section of the crowd has been lured by the sight of seeing two of the season's outstanding basketball makers vie for the tournament individual scoring record set last year by Kansas' Clyde Lovellette.

The two are Bob Houbregs, Washington's 6-foot-7 All America, and Don Schlundt, Indiana's 6-9 sophomore sensation. They are within striking distance of the 141 points scored by Lovellette in 1952's four tournament games.

Houbregs already has cracked one of Lovellette's marks—the individual game record. He scored 45 points against Seattle in the first game of the Far West regional. That bettered Lovellette's mark by one point.

By adding 34 points against Santa Clara in Saturday's finals, the Washington hook-shot artist increased his total to 79. He now needs 62 points to tie the record and 63 to beat it. Thus he can score 16 less points in the final two games than he did in the first pair and rewrite the book.

Schlundt's job will be a little more difficult. He has a total of 64 points and needs 76 to go over the mark. He is a terrific shot from anywhere in the area of his goal and frequently comes up with explosions of points. His season's average is 25.1.

Akron Teams Roll Today In ABC

CHICAGO (P)—High scoring teams from Akron, O., will take to the alleys today in the American Bowling Congress tournament as they attempt to displace the leading Pfeiffer Beers of Detroit.

Heading the 40 booster teams scheduled to roll on St. Patrick's Day will be the J-Dapper Spout Co. and the G. I. Machine Co., both of Akron.

The two Ohio teams carry averages of better than a 1,000. Dick Hoover, 1950 national match game champion, heads the J - Dapper team, while Boss Bosco, a finalist in the 1952 match games, is the leader of the G. I. aggregation.

There were no changes in the top 10 Monday in singles, doubles, all-events, regular team or booster team events.

An'hony Deleonardis and Andrew Perhacs of Steubenville combined for the best doubles total, 1,222, in Monday's rolling.

Alex Zak, Korean War veteran from Weirton, W. Va., was high in the all events with a 1,853.

Rookie Hurler Holds Best Tribe Record

PASADENA, Calif. (P)—Some-

thing doesn't add up on the Cleveland Indians' pitching staff. The most effective chucker, Wilber (Jake) Striker, has never played anything but Class D ball before.

While this is the time of year when possibly two dozen "greater than Feller" turn up only to be forgotten before opening day, the Indians are deadly serious about young Striker.

The 19-year-old Sulphur Springs, O. southpaw has pitched nine innings against big league hitting this season. His record: The Giants got four hits in three innings, the Cubs had one in three, and the Giants last Sunday had two in three.

Will he stick this season with the varsity? The odds are against him there. It's quite a jump from Class D to the majors.

But Manager Al Lopez and the other Indians consider him an amazingly cool performer, with plenty of control and lots of "quick." They don't think it will be too long until he arrives.

Surprisingly, the Indians, who paid around $50,000 for pitcher Herbie Score, obtained Striker for practically nothing. Score hasn't looked too good.

In Monday's game at San Bernardino, the Browns learned during the third inning that they would stay in St. Louis. That seemed to inspire them, because they proceeded to tag Al Aber for three runs in the next inning and wound up with an easy 9-4 victory over Cleveland.

Reds Pleased With Trouncing Of Yankees

TAMPA, Fla. (P)—The Cincinnati Reds were due in Clearwater today to face the Philadelphia Phils and they can be pardoned if they display a bit of cockiness.

When the Reds, who haven't been out of the National League's second division for 10 years, can get 17 hits and wallop the New York Yankees by an 11-2 count there is reason for the flexing of muscles.

The particular toast of the team was Roy McMillan, the sharp little shortstop, who got four hits in five times at bat.

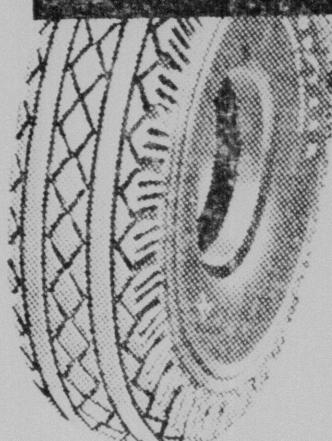

Herman Wehmeier and Bud Podbielan were expected to do the Cincinnati pitching today.

Mays Refused Army Discharge

Reds Tounce Yanks
On 17 Hits, 11-2

By BEN OLAN
AP Sportswriter

It still was Pvt. Willie Mays today and that's not good news for the New York Giants.

The 21-year-old Negro outfielder had his application for discharge from the Army on dependency grounds turned down yesterday. Mays said he was the sole support of his mother, step-father, three brothers and six sisters.

The Giants had been hoping to have him back in time for the opening of the National League season next month. His availability in center field would have assured the switching of Bobby Thomson to third base.

Manager Leo Durocher is currently playing Hank Thompson in center but the shift-conscious skipper is expected to make further experiments before deciding who will open the season in that spot. Thomson played center field after Mays went into service last year.

A spokesman at the Second Army headquarters, Ft. Meade, Md., which reviewed Willie's case, said, "Dependency did not exist to a degree to warrant a discharge."

To add to the day's misfortune, the Giants learned that Thomson would be sidelined for two weeks as a result of a blow he received on the right wrist Sunday when struck by one of Mike Garcia's pitches.

Also on the debit side, the Giants dropped a 4-3 exhibition decision to the Chicago White Sox at Los Angeles. A couple of errors gave the Sox three unearned runs in the fourth inning off southpaw Max Lanier.

Another injury, at first thought to be a damaging one, cropped up as the Chicago Cubs defeated Los Angeles, 6-3, at Fullerton, Calif. Hank Sauer, the National League's most valuable player in 1952, jammed his right index finger while sliding back to first base. Trainer Al Scheuermann said last night the injury was not serious and that there was only a little swelling.

In other games, Dave Philley's single with the bases loaded and two out gave the Philadelphia Athletics a 2-1 victory over the Brooklyn Dodgers. Butch Shantz started for Philadelphia and allowed only one hit in the five innings he worked.

The Cincinnati Reds pounded out 17 hits, including Gus Bell's home run, as they pounded the New York Yankees, 11-2. Bubba Church and Eddie Erault limited the Yankees to seven hits.

At Bradenton, Fla., the Boston Red Sox scored three runs in the ninth inning to whip the Boston Braves, 8-6.

The Washington Senators walked two Detroit pitchers for six homers and an 11-4 win over the Tigers.

Rookie Bill Hunter's triple and single which accounted for four runs led the St. Louis Browns to a 9-4 triumph over the Cleveland Indians.

Home runs by Del Ennis and Earl Torgerson were the big blows as the Philadelphia Phillies outslugged the St. Louis Cardinals, 11-9.

At Havana, the Pittsburgh Pirates downed the Cuban All-Stars, 9-2.

10% Boost In Golf Greens Fees Proposed

AKRON, O. (AP)—The newly formed Tri-County Golf Proprietors Association recommends a 10 percent green fees boost for this season.

The association—representing 16 clubs in Summit, Portage and Stark Counties—called Monday for a $1.75 fee for 18 holes for Summit County on Saturdays, Sundays and holidays and a $1.25 fee for week days. It asks the same week day prices for the Canton area but only $1.50 for premium days.

Thompson—Finished four years of varsity play without tasting defeat during regular season, outstanding rebounder and scorer.

Hayes—He has everything—speed, agility, a 58.4 percentage on field goals, missed two games because of auto accident, but scored 583 in 18 games up to district tournament.

Barr—Most outstanding player area has boasted in years, in either Class A or Class B.

Hood—The big answer to Seven Mile's highly-successful season. Some college will "love" this boy. Ashley won the first team captaincy, Fletcher Yates of Lockland Wayne the second, and Bud Beemer of Beavercreek the third.

Randy Turpin To Fight Walt Cartier Tonight

LONDON (AP)—Randy Turpin, the guy the British think should be the world middleweight champion, tussles with New York's Walt Cartier over 10 rounds at Earl's Court Arena tonight in his first bout with an American in 18 months.

British sports writers have pinned a "glass jaw" label on Cartier, who has been knocked out six times, and agree that Randy, one of the heaviest punchers for his weight, should be able to settle the argument effectively round about the halfway stage.

He will have to if he wants to cut through the tangle of contenders for the world crown relinquished by Sugar Ray Robinson last year. Cartier isn't ranked in the first 10 on U. S. lists.

Three former winners have been nominated for the $50,000 McLennan race at Hialeah. They are Spartaco Valor (1952), Gangway (1951) and Three Rings (1950).

TOO MANY LEGS—Gonzaga's Jerry Vermillion (foreground) spills to the floor during a heated moment of action at the NAIA tournament in Kansas City, and his outstretched legs, coupled with those of an unidentified teammate, make him appear three-legged. The loose ball bounds away appearing to balance on the head of South-west Missouri's Art Helms. The Missourians, defending NAIA champions, coasted to a 95-74 victory.

Ohio Class B All-Star Team Is Announced

COLUMBUS, O. (AP)—Headed by Middleport's scintillating Bob Ashley, five youngsters emerged today from a field of some 12,000 as Ohio's 1953 all-state Class B high school basketball team.

Ashley was a standout in the voting by coaches, sports writers and officials as The Associated Press selected the annual dream team. The 6-4 Middleport freshman averaged 27.1 points for the season to lead his team—only Class B school in the loop—to the South-eastern Ohio League championship. He was an all-Ohio choice in basketball a year ago, and in football last fall.

Paired with him at forward is Wayneburg's Leroy Thompson, member of the 1952 all-tournament team at the state meet, who averaged 23 per game for a club which lost only one game. With Thompson a star all the way, Wayneburg lost only four games in four years—all in tournament play.

Oak Hill's high-scoring Adrian (Stretch) Hayes, who averaged 31.2 grabbed the center job, with the guard berth going to Dewey Barr of Glenford's 30-game winners, and Tom Hood, stand-out of the rugged Seven Mile quintet.

The selections, made on sheer individual merit alone and based on pre-tournament games, failed for the most part to get into the state tournament picture. Charles McDaniels of Mariemont, a third-string guard, was the only one from the four finalists to win an all-Ohio position, although Canfield, Philo and Holgate, the other survivors, each placed a player among the honorable mentions.

Here's what the voters had to say about the top quintet:

Ashley—Broke SEO scoring record, has averaged more than 20 points for four years of varsity play.

Thompson—Finished four years of varsity play without tasting defeat during regular season, outstanding rebounder and scorer.

Hayes—He has everything—speed, agility, a 58.4 percentage on field goals, missed two games because of auto accident, but scored 583 in 18 games up to district tournament.

Barr—Most outstanding player area has boasted in years, in either Class A or Class B.

Hood—The big answer to Seven Mile's highly-successful season. Some college will "love" this boy.

Ashley won the first team captaincy, Fletcher Yates of Lockland Wayne the second, and Bud Beemer of Beavercreek the third.

Rule On Joint Return

WASHINGTON (AP)—The U. S. Tax Court has ruled that a joint income tax return may be filed by a couple having an interlocutory divorce decree which has not become final.

The decision, handed down yesterday, involved Mariner S. Eccles, former chairman of the Federal Reserve Board, who is now a banker in Utah. Eccles filed a joint return with Maysie Y. Eccles, his divorced wife, for the year 1949.

Their preliminary divorce decree was granted Aug. 2 of that year, to become final after six months.

The Internal Revenue Bureau maintained Eccles had no right to file a joint return, and billed him for the $5,479 for which he would have been additionally liable as a divorced man.

The Tax Court ruled against the bureau's position.

Ike To Fight For Bohlen Approval

Challenge Accepted On Policy Showdown

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Eisenhower administration appeared today to have accepted the challenge to a foreign policy showdown with opponents of Charles E. (Chip) Bohlen's nomination as ambassador to Russia.

Nearly all of those opponents in the Senate are Republicans.

Friends of Bohlen said the career foreign service officer had no thought of asking President Eisenhower to withdraw his name. And White House Press Secretary James Hagerty said there was "no change" in the situation there.

The nominee had a case of measles which forced a delay until tomorrow of a new hearing on his appointment by the Senate Foreign Relations Committee. It was originally set for today.

Sen. Bridges (R-NH) predicted there will be from 15 to 20 votes against Bohlen in the Senate.

Like a mild case of measles when you're 48, that might be a little embarrassing to Bohlen, but not serious. It would require a majority of the Senate to reject his nomination—49 senators if all 96 were on hand and voted. No senator has predicted Bohlen's nomination will be turned down. Sen. Ferguson (R-Mich) last night predicted easy confirmation. Ferguson said he hasn't made up his mind how he will vote.

If the foreign relations committee votes tomorrow, the nomination might be brought to the Senate floor for confirmation Friday. The administration has said it is anxious to speed Bohlen to Moscow for a first-hand look at the new Malenkov regime.
